By Lois Weiss

Wednesday, November 02, 2005 - Crumbs Bake Shop signed a deal for 500 sf at The Grace Building at 1114 Avenue of the Americas and is scheduled to open on the West 42nd St. side of the building opposite Bryant Park in time for the 2005 holiday season. Andrew Pittel, President, and Ryan Pash of Pittel & Company represented both the building owner, Trizec Hahn-Swig and the tenant in the transaction. Crumbs Bake Shop specializes in cupcakes and bakes more than 25 varieties fresh daily. The retail stores are inspired by old-time candy shops and are warm and inviting with wood cases, tiled floors and marble tables. Crumbs Bake Shops has three other locations as well as a highly successful wholesale business.
